MEMORANDUM.

In March last an individual styling himself "M. S. G. Abbas, late Private Tutor and Secretary to the Rajas and the Officers", addressed a letter from Jodhpur to the Manager of a hotel in Simla, stating that he was on very intimate terms with Native Chiefs and Nobles, and asking that he might be employed as a paid agent in going round Native States, with a view to securing them as lodgers for the hotel during their visits to Simla. He said also that he possessed many letters and certificates from such persons, some of whom he had served as Tutor, and others as Secretary.

The following particulars have now been obtained regarding this individual:—

The Political Agent, Alwar, writing on the 1st May 1903, reports that the ancestors of Maulvi S. Ghulam Abbas hailed from Delhi, but that for several generations the family had lived in Alwar, and that the members may, therefore, be considered to be domiciled Alwar subjects. Ghulam Abbas is the son of Maulvi Tajammul Husain, 2nd Persian Teacher in the Alwar High School, on a salary of Rs. 35 a month. His younger brother is employed in the Alwar Jail on a monthly salary of Rs. 25.

In February 1896, Ghulam Abbas was, at the request of Raja Janak Singh, of Nimrana, appointed as his Private Secretary by Colonel Jennings, Political Agent, Alwar, but in November 1898 the same officer had him turned out of Nimrana for intriguing. Since then he has apparently been living on his earnings as a guide to tourists or teacher of Persian to European Officers, or as an agent to European firms. He served for some time under Mr. C. B. Burrows, who undertook to write the work "Representative men of Rajputana", but since the latter's death he has not had any settled means of livelihood. He has always been fond of writing and sending to high officials and others, Persian verses, and on the occasion of the death of Her Majesty the late Queen Victoria, he addressed a letter of condolence to Lord Curzon, but the usual letter of thanks in reply was withheld by Major Impey, the then Political Agent, Alwar, as Ghulam Abbas's reputation being dubious it was thought he might make ill use of the letter of acknowledgment.

C. S. B. Circular No. 10.

Dated Simla, the 30th May 1903.

A copy of the foregoing Memorandum is circulated, for information, with the request that any further particulars in regard to Maulvi S. Ghulam Abbas, his descriptive roll, &c., may be promptly communicated to the C. S. B.
